Tammany Leader Objects to Action of State Superintendent in Calling on Police to Challenge Persons Who Register.

INSPECTORS ARE SUPREME.

Organization, He Declares, Will Protect Every Citizen of New York Who Wishes to Place His Name en the Registry Lists.

Leader Charles F. Murphy, of Tammany Hall, this afternoon criticised the action of State Superintendent of Elections McCullagh in placing policemen on guard at registration and election places with lists of suspected persons and instructing them to challenge the persons who attempted to register or vote under those names.

"The policemen on duty places," he said, "are there simply to test. preserve the peace. They have no more right to challenge a voter than any peat what I said yesterday, that every pressure here. citizen of New York who wishes to register will be protected by this organi-

"On registration day the inspectors are supreme. The officer in attendance is there to preserve order. If any qualified elector challenges an applicant, the chairman of the Board of Election In-spectors, or any member of the board, should administer the oath as required by law, and after the questions contained in the challenge sheet are asked, the Board of Inspectors should at once place the name of the applicant upon the registration list. When any quali-fied elector or other person objects to an applicant, the Board of Election In-spectors must swear in his vote."

The coal roads suffered most in the general depression and while the entire market was weak other issues sustained only fractional losses.

St. Paul, Southern Pacific, Union Pacific, Atchison, Missouri Pacific and Pennsylvania, as the leaders in the railroad list, lost about a point each in the early trading, but in subsequent rallies regained most of it.

The listless apathy which dominated the market for most of the session indicated how uncertain the street feels as to the outcome of the labor trouble in the anthracite field. The soft coal roads were stronger today on the theory that they would be the chief beneficiaries of a continuance to do more than protect their holdings. The volume of sales was limited and confined to a narrow circle. There was a dull, hardening movement until the appearance of the disappointing bahk statement produced a disorderly slump. Prices gave way by large fractions between transactions in some of the principal sufferers, notably Missouri Pacific, which lost 3 7-8, St. Paul 3 1-4 and Atchison 2 5-8. Declines reached 2 or over in Reading, Penneylvania, Union Pacific, St. Louis Southwestern preferred, Southern Pacific, Canadian Pacific and Sugar. Statistician Brown, of the Produce Exchange, whose figures are regarded change, has computed the crop yield in bushels based on the official crop re port of the United States Department of

To-day's stock market at the opening showed an evident downward tendency, due largely to the postponement of the strike conferences and the failure of the politicians' efforts to end the contest.

London again to-day had heavy selling orders cabled from this side before the opening, and this caused increased pressure here.

Money, which for some time has been the prime cause of fear in Wall street, is now so much easier that it is temporarily displaced by the various rumors and reports on the coal strike.

The United states 620,585,000 that is greatest of the United states 620,585,000 that is greatest changes. The Government announced a decline of 4.7 points since September, which in bushels means a loss of nearly two months. The westward flow of money to move the crops is not more than half over and the scarcity of money to move the scarcity of money to move the crops is not more than half over and the scarcity of money at this point is going to be distinctly felt until December.

Statistician Brown finds that the oats changes the estimates was 2,561,490,-900, while in September the estimates were 2,485,681,000 bushels.

Statistician Brown finds that the oats crop is phenomenal and unprecedented. He estimates the total yield at 988,632,000 bushels last year.
